BUFFALO BILL ABROAD.

A Little Love Affair—What the Cowboys Think of It.
 The success of "our own" Buffalo Bill—W. F. Cody—in England is very gratifying to thousands of admirers on this side. There was more truth than many imagined in his reply to the inquiry: "What are you doing in England?"

so, calling her "Mme. Wolter." After this presentation the Empress said, in an aside to the actress, "You must not mistake my intention, dear Countess, in calling you 'Mme. Wolter' instead of Countess O'Sullivan. I am proud of you as being Mme. Wolter!"
