FINAL PROOFS.

Editor Bassett Gets Facetious.
Last Thursday evening, in default of $300 bail F. H. Remington was committed to jail. Why? Well it appears that last spring an attachment was put on some live stock belonging to him and that he recently sold nine cows and a calf covered by said attachment, rendering to the attachees, none whatsoever of the surplus—if any, whereupon under complaint of Mayor Gray, action was brought against him for disposing of property in charge of the sheriff, and being brought before Justice Anderson was held to the district court in the sum heretofore stated and mentioned and failed to secure bondmen to that extent. Friday Attorney Winterer ushered himself, into the presence of his royal nibs, one Wm. H. Francis, judge of the district court, who is engaged in a session of court at Jamestown, and sought Mr. Winterer to secure a writ of corporosity christus—or some such animal—and such secured he, Judge Francis ordering that the said Remington be brought before His Royal Nibs the following day, which was Saturday. And 'twas done, the cortege consisting of Attorneys Scott and Winterer, Sheriff Simons and the defendant, H. R. N. Judge Francis offered to release Mr. R. on his personal recognizance to appear before the grand jury at the next term of court, but Remington knows good provender when he gets to it and what in thunder is the use of paying board when it comes free in the winter time? It is quite a snap for Frederick and he'll probably lay by it till spring and then furnish bonds. Long head, that?—Valley City Alliance.

To Our Readers.

"We cannot too strongly urge upon our readers the necessity of subscribing for a family weekly newspaper of first class—such, for instance, as THE INDEPENDENT, of New York. Were we obliged to select one publication for habitual and careful reading to the exclusion of all others, we should choose unhesitatingly THE INDEPENDENT. It is a newspaper, magazine, and review, all in one. It is a religious, a literary, an educational, a story, an art, a scientific, an agricultural, a financial, and a political paper combined. It has 32 folio pages and 21 departments. No matter what a person's religion, politics or profession may be, no matter what the age, sex employment or condition may be, THE INDEPENDENT will prove a help, an instructor, an educator. Our readers can do no less than to send a postal for a free specimen copy, or for thirty cents the paper will be sent a month enabling one to judge of its merits more critically. Its yearly subscription is $3.00, or two years for $5.00.

Those who desire to subscribe for The American Agriculturist as well as THE INDEPENDENT cannot make a better bargain than by accepting THE INDEPENDENT's offer to send both papers for one year for the sum of $3.75. Each subscriber will thus save seventy-five cents on the two papers. Address, THE INDEPENDENT, 251 Broadway, New York City."
