He holds lots books and maps. Burials through 197 here are found in "Cemeteries of North Dakota, Barnes County, Volume 4" published by RRVGS, Fargo, ND. (from Cemeteries of Barnes County, 2002)                      2-1-2004 ADDITIONAL INFO: He holds lot books and maps. He also owns a computer index to his lot books showing the names of lot owners, the names of burials in those lots, and a page citation in his two lot books. We photocopied his index printout for use in finding "no stoners". The index contains errors. Since it does not contain dates, and many names vary from inscription names, matching was difficult. Those that did not match were looked up in the two lot books, but few dates are found in the books. We likely have a number with two entries in this book, one as "stoner" and one as "no stoner" under a slightly different name. We were able to resolve the starred (*) surnames down about a hundred. Some of those 100 may have a different surname. (from Cemeteries of Valley City, 2003)

5180	Wooland Family		ND 1/4 18-139-57
	Cuba Twp. 12-1-2002 This cemetery is abandoned in tall grass and surrounded by seeded crop acres. Access to this cemetery requires crossing the see or stubble ground. From the road, with field glasses, one single white marker can be seen above the weeds. Several large new stones have l added to this cemetery. The cemetery is located 4 miles south of I-94, exit 296, then right about 1/4 mile on prairie road 38th St. SE, then a walk to the south out in the field. The cemetery burials were reported in the 1973 "Cemeteries of ND, Vol 4, Barnes County." See page 118 for more detailed births and deaths supplied by M. Gartland. 5181	Butterfield Burials		NE corner of NE 1/4 26-139-58
	Marsh Twp. 12-1-2002 There are supposed to be about five burials here in this grove of trees which includes fallen timber, tangles of weeds and many rocks extracted from the cropland and dumped. The one metal marker had been removed by Jackie Stricklin, Valley City, a relative, and in 2002 we could not identify graves in the dense cover. This much abandoned cemetery is located 4 miles west of Cuba along 40th St. SE and a mile north along 119th Ave. SE, and on the west side of the avenue. Mrs. Stricklin and her sisters attempted to determine who the other bur were, but so far have been unsuccessful. (from Cemeteries of Barnes County, 2002)

This cemetery is on the east side of Co. Hwy. 21 (the Valley Road) about 6 miles south of the I-94 underpass. Take the gravel roa east on the south side of Douglas Olstad's house that goes up the hill to a gravel pit. The cemetery is to the north and west a short distance across a field. The stones can be seen with difficulty from the highway. (from Cemeteries of Barnes County, 2002)

5184	Hobart Zion Lutheran		SW corner SW 1/4 15-140-59
	Hobart Twp. 12-1-2002 The 1910 Barnes County atlas shows a cemetery in this location. In the very SW corner of that section, on the north side of Hwy. 1, is a large pink boulder placed there some years ago by Imanuel Jacobson and Byron Berge, with Berge routing the inscription informatior some of the burials that exist in the old abandoned cemetery, as well as one burial that is located one mile north. Ole Anderson donated one acre of land for the church in the 1880s, but the church was not built and the area was used for burials. This cemetery is located on the north side of Hwy. 1 about 2 miles west of the I-94/Hwy. 1 off ramp. Other than the pink boulder, no visual evidence of the cemetery exists, as th area of the cemetery is "farmed over". (from Cemeteries of Barnes County, 2002)

	Hobart Twp. 12-1-2002 Along south side and near the middle of SW 1/4 10-140-59 Hobart Twp. No GPS coordinates were taken as the actual position doubtful. Information on the location of this cemetery is found on the pink granite boulder described for Cemetery 35 (our Dept. #5184). Under Tobias' name is inscribed: "1 MI. NO. 70 RDS. E." Byron Berge, who made the inscriptions confirms the location as one mile north and 70 rods east, but said they were not sure of the exact location. Tobias is buried on his brother's, John Jacob Ellingson, homestead SW 1. 10, which would be one mile north. There is no marker at the actual burial site. For more family information, see "Barnes County History", 1976, page 61. (from Cemeteries of Barnes County, 2002)
5186	Unknown Burials		S 1/2 14-140-59
	Hobart Twp. 12-1-2002 The exact location was not determined. Frank Wolf, who lives in the very SE corner of this section, thought it was on a hill direc north of the Edward Thom residence, which would locate it in the SE 1/4. He and others say they always heard there were two burials here, but names, etc. have been lost. The homestead patent on this quarter was obtained by Michel Gesellchen in 1889. This spot is located a mil and a half north of I-94, exit 288, along 112th Ave. SE and a quarter mile west along 33rd St. SE and to the north of the road. It is located about 4 mil west of I-94, exit 288, along Hwy. 1 and on the south side of the highway. Don Schlotman (701-845-4007), 11026 - 33rd St. SE, Valley Cit ND 58072, acts as sexton and caretaker, but has no records. Andy Aune, 11565 - 33rd St. SE, Valley City, ND, holds a crude list of burials with some dates. (from Cemeteries of Barnes County, 2002)

	Weimer Twp. 12-1-2002 See "Oriska 1881-1981" p. 15-18. The 1863 burial was thought by Dana Wright, of the State Historical Society of ND, to be somewhere on the SE 1/4. A large stone and two white vertical military stones are placed in a small chained enclosure on the west ditch of Hwy. 32 about 4 miles north of Oriska. These markers are a few feet south of the SE corner of Sec. 29, and just south of the field approach, which would be 29th St. SE if a road existed. The grass inside the enclosure is well mowed. (from Cemeteries of Barnes County, 2002)

Hwy. 19 junction, two miles west along 29th St. SE, a mile north on 116th Ave., then a mile west on 28th St. SE, and on the south side of the street. The sexton is John Froelich (701-845-1371), 11405 - 28 R St. SE, Valley City, ND 58072. No cemetery records were available, and appear not to be kept in a lawful manner. He holds a map which shows burials by surname, but no given names or dates. We checked t 1973 list against our list of stoners here, and found we had all of them. We were able to photocopy this record. The cemetery is north of New Rockford about a mile, just past the airport, then west about a quarter mile, on the north side of the road. His records include a well kept interment book that dates from about 1921, while the burials started in the 1880s. We did get a photocopy of this book. This cemetery is adjacent to and just west of the St. John's Catholic Cemetery. (from Cemeteries of Eddy County, 1998)

James Stage, McHenry, is the current sexton and holds a map and interment/lot owner book showing burials. Information in the book appears to be of only recent history. The cemetery is located one and a half miles north of McHenry on the west side of Hwy. 20. (from Cemeteries of Eddy County, 1998)
5001	possible Cooley burial		SW1/4 SW1/4 of 12-148-64
	Columbia twp. 12-1-1998 An April 3, 1958 New Rockford Transcript article shows a discovery of a stone by Arthur Fenneman, an ancestor of the current owner. He found it while landscaping his farm yard. The white marble stone measures 12x24x2" and is commercially inscribed. The 1848 burial of a one-year-old baby suggests to James Davis (ND State Historical Society), that the stone probably was brought later for other purposes and is not marking a burial. The stone is now on display at the Lake Region Pioneer Daughters at Fort Totten. Information from Cherry Monson, Warwick. (from Cemeteries of Eddy County, 1998)
5002	Brantford		SW1/4 NW1/4 of 36-148-65
	Pleasant Prairie twp. 12-1-1998 There is no road to this abandoned cemetery. It is located one mile east of the hard-surfaced road along the gravel road on the north side of Brantford, then about a half mile south. The section line between section 35 and 36 is farmed over. We drove south to the cemetery on the stubble field in section 36. There is a rusty fence surrounding the cemetery, which contains high grass and overgrown lilac bushes--with graves under the bushes. (from Cemeteries of Eddy County, 1998)
5003	German Free Church		S1/2 SE1/4 of 12-148-67
	Rosefield twp. 12-1-1998 This cemetery is fenced and moved perhaps once a year. It contains numerous spreading lilacs covering stones. There is an unmowed area of graves in the NW corner of the cemetery. Ida Womacks, New Rockford, is expert with this cemetery. It is located about a mile and a half west of the intersection of Highways 15 and 281, adjacent to and on the north side of Hwy. 15. (from Cemeteries of Eddy County, 1998)
5004	Washington Lake		NE1/4 SE1/4 of 5-149-63
	Washington Lake twp. 12-1-1998 The cemetery is fenced and mowed frequently by Dennis and Lorna Olson, Bismarck. Cherry Monson, Warwick, has data on the cemetery and knew of some burials without markers. She said the eastern part of the cemetery was left to build a church. When the time came to build the church, the main road had moved and the Knox Presbyterian Church, which was associated with this cemetery, was built on the NW 1/4 NW 1/4 15. There were no burials in the churchyard. Later the church was moved and burned. We have not been able to find existing church records. This cemetery can be found six miles west of the Hwy. 15/20 intersection north of McHenry, then five miles north, one west and 3/4-mile south on a prairie trail. 154	James River Church 10/2/1931	Haven twp. the Brethren Church 8-1-1997 The cemetery is fenced and abandoned to grass and shrubs and the church is gone. The most recent burial was made in 1940. A map of the cemetery and a list of burials was obtained by Cathy Paulson, but we have been unable to determine the origin of the record or fi a sexton. Owen Thurlow, a neighbor near the cemetery, said the church was originally of the Dunkard faith and later was purchased by the Brethren group. He said that during the Dunkard ownership, a neighbor used the church for processing "moonshine" and had his mash barr in one of the church out buildings. Church members wondered about the strange odor in the church! Fred Sauby, of Evans Funeral Home, 90 Poplar Ave., Carrington, is the sexton and he is aided by Wes Kahl, president of the cemetery association. Several sections of the site have been designated for Catholic burials, but there is no separate Catholic cemetery. Those sections have been designat with a double letter, the second being a "C", such as AC, BC, CC, etc. Sauby has the records. The earliest interment book extant started in 1931. Their records earlier than that are taken from stone inscriptions and burial records of the Evans Funeral Home. Perhaps many unknowns exist. Our 1997 readings here were checked against the cemetery records and against the 1975 cemetery book, published by the Red River Valley society. 5040	Johannesthal Cemetery		W1/2 of 33-133-71
	Johannesdale twp. 7-14-96 A churchyard on the 1916 atlas, six miles south of Burnstad on 37th Ave. SE, one mile east on 77th St. SE and 1/2-mile south on 38th Ave. SE, a prairie trail. Located 5 miles south of Burnstad on 3 Ave. SE, two miles east on 77th St. SE and a 1/2-mile north on 39th Ave. SE. Delmer Diegel, the informant, remembers attending a funeral there around 1941. He estimated that about 30 or more graves existed. The area was fenced until the 1950s and is now farmed over. There were no markers and Delmer could not recall the names of any persons buried. (from Cemeteries of Logan County, 1996)

	7-1-2004 This site, containing one stone denoting the burial of two children is inaccessible by road. There was a trail (now unreadable) fro the east starting in section 29. At his direction, we drove east along the section line road south of his farm, NE across the buffalo pasture, down a steep dirt access road to t valley, then across 2 miles or so of gated pasture to the location. That route is not recommended unless you are on horseback or an all terrai vehicle. 	7-1-2004 All burials here were moved by the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers in about 1963 in constructing the Oahe Dam Reservoir. All but few were buried in the New Reed Cemetery located in section 23-130-80. This location is still above the water in the reservoir but it was thought the land would slough and access to the cemetery would be lost. The earliest burial reported here was in 1892 and the latest in 1963. 308 graves were located, staked and numbered. One, #288, was previously moved leaving 307 moved by the Army. The Corps was only able to identify 213 graves. #217, Jack T. Romey, 1881-1947, was moved to the Linton City Cemetery. Numbers 271 through 274, members of the Stewart family, were moved to the McLaughlin (SD) Protestant Cemetery. All the rest were moved to the site of the new Reed Cemetery. Many there were marked with small red granite markers numbered with the name, and the 4F designation along with the number of the location in this original cemetery. Unknowns appear not to be marked in the new cemetery. (from Cemeteries of Sioux County, 2004)
5198	Reed or Fort Yates Protestant		NE 1/4 23-130-80
	7-1-2004 The cemetery is mowed in the early summer, and a few plots are mowed more often. This cemetery was established by the Army Corps of Engineers in about 1963 and almost all of the burials in the original cemetery--about a mile away--were re-buried here. See the account of cemetery No. 6 (Dept. #5197) for details. This cemetery is found a mile west of downtown Fort Yates, mile south along the gravel road, then a quarter mile west, and south a block or so. No stoners were determined here by checking "stoners" against the 1963 Army Corps of Engineers listing of burials they found in the original cemetery. We do own copies of those Corps reports. It is mowed as a part of the yard of Odenbach's, but is continually degrading to the point where only one inscribed loose marker exists. There are other evidences of burials but no markers. Information on some of the unmarked burials was obtained from Fred Schuler, Jamestown, who grew up and has a farm in this area. This cemetery is located 6 miles east of the bend in Hwy. 36, north of Woodworth, then three and a third miles south on 62nd Ave. SE. It is on the east side of the road. 	Valley Springs twp. 10-1-99 This abandoned cemetery is just a grass spot on the hill adjacent to 28th St. SE that has been farmed around. Some of the original burial sites have been farmed over. Some grave depressions are evident in the tall grass. Vernon Schelske recalls 5 graves ringed with rock when he attended school there in the 1940s. Kenneth Jonietz thinks there may be as many as 8-9 graves here. Ernest E. Haas, a resident of the area for many years, recalls some of the names of the burials. See also "Medina, ND Centennial 1899-1999" page 105. This cemetery is on the north side of 28th St. SE about a quarter mile west of the Medina Country SDA cemetery. 5062	McGinnis Cemetery		NE1/4 NW1/4 of 26-140-64
	Midway twp. 10-1-99 The description of #5061 applies here as well. These two cemeteries are on the west side of Hwy. 281/52 going north out of Jamestown, then west on a road just south of the Army National Guard vehicle storage area on the west side of Hwy. 281. There is a sign "McGinnis Cemetery" and decorative rock work at the cemetery gate. (from Cemeteries of Stutsman County, 1999)
5063	Romer Family Burial		SE1/4 of 28-139-64
	Woodbury twp. 10-1-1999 This family cemetery supposedly started out with a few wooden markers that decayed away. This site is about 400 yards west of 81st Ave. SE and about 4-3/4 miles south of its intersection with I-94. (from Cemeteries of Stutsman County, 1999)
5064	Unknown Family Burial		SE1/4 of 28-139-64

	Newbury twp. 10-1-1999 The cemetery is fenced, has a sign over the gate and is well kept. Richard Guthmiller, 507 Water St., Medina, 486-3483, is sexton. He holds what exists of church burial records and township burial records and is knowledgeable about other area cemeteries. This site is 6 miles south of the I-94/Hwy. 30 intersection, then on the south side, 1-1/2 miles west on 43rd St. SE. (from Cemeteries of Stutsman County, 1999)
5067	Zion German Evangelical		NE1/4 NE1/4 of 6-138-68

	Bloomenfield twp. 10-1-1999 Two stone markers are found to the north of what must have been the church location, moved away long ago. There appear to be other grave depressions. The cemetery is abandoned to tall weeds. The 1930 county atlas shows a church across the road to the east in the very southwest corner of section 14. Whether this church was located there earlier is not known. This site is 8 miles south of the I-94/55th Ave. SE off ramp at Medina, then 3 miles east long 45th St. SE, and on the north side of the road. (from Cemeteries of Stutsman County, 1999)
5069	Unknown Burials		SE1/4 SW1/4 of 26-138-67
	Sinclair twp. 10-1-1999 There are no markers. The spot is just north of an approach and immediately west of a tree shelter belt that parallels 47th St. SE. Bill Weinrich said that John Blaskowski's aunt is buried there along with two others, unknown. This site is located 7 miles north of Gackle along 65th Ave. SE, then 1-1/2 miles east on 47th St. SE, on the north side of the road. (from Cemeteries of Stutsman County, 1999)

There are supposed to be many other burials here, but no markers. A marker near the gate is dedicated to the Merry Family and to people deceased, who did at one time care for the cemetery. No cemetery records have been found. Burials began in the school yard and continued for a time. The cemetery is found 7 miles south of I-94 along 68th Ave. SE, then 2 miles east along 43rd St. SE, then a half mile south on the south side of 70th Ave. SE. 5071	Nellie Melvin Grave		SE1/4 of 12-138-65
	Lenton twp. 10-1-1999 The grave marker is found about 200 yards WSW of the farm buildings in this quarter, and on the west side of the creek at that point. It is difficult to find in the buckbrush of a pasture in use. Nellie was thought to have been with a wagon train and was buried along the route. She was instead, the daughter of William Thomas Melvin, who homesteaded on that section in the 1880s. This burial spot is found 7 1/2 miles along Hwy. 281, south of the I-94/Hwy. 281 intersection at Jamestown, then 5 miles west along 44th St. SE to the SE corner of the section. A short walk from the buildings is needed. (from Cemeteries of Stutsman County, 1999)
5072	Streeter City		NW1/4 SW1/4 of 23-137-69
	Streeter twp. 10-1-1999 The cemetery is partially fenced, has a large sign, and is well maintained. The sexton is William Graf, 241 State St. North, Streeter, 424-3349, who holds a plat map and burials along with an interment book dating from 1932, the records being kept in the bank vault. This cemetery is located a half mile north of Streeter along 52nd Ave. SE, on the east side of the road. (from Cemeteries of Stutsman County, 1999)
5073	Congregational Church		SE1/4 SE1/4 of 19-137-68
	Germania twp. 10-1-1999 This abandoned cemetery is at the site of a church, which was sold and moved. There are only two stones evident in a swelling mass of lilacs. This cemetery is 2 miles east of Streeter along 52nd St. SE, and on the north side of the road just as it turns north. (from Cemeteries of Stutsman County, 1999)
5074	Bloomenfeld/German Baptist		NW1/4 SW1/4 of 14-137-68
	Germania twp. 10-1-1999 This cemetery is a long way off the beaten path, but it is mowed regularly, and enclosed by a fence. There have been no recent burials. Herbert Wolff, Gackle, has knowledge of this cemetery. This site can be found 3 miles west of Gackle along Hwy. 46, then 4 miles north along 59th Ave. SE, then a mile west to the intersection of 58th Ave. SE. Here you must take a long trail around to the west of a large slough that eventually leads to the cemetery. (from Cemeteries of Stutsman County, 1999)
5075	Evangelical Church		SE1/4 SE1/4 of 3-137-68
	Germania twp. 10-1-1999 This abandoned cemetery has most of its stones fallen and covered by swelling lilacs. This site can be reached 3 miles west of Gackle along Hwy. 46, then 4 miles north along 59th Ave. SE, then a mile west and a mile north of 58th Ave. SE. The cemetery is just to the west of the intersection of 58th Ave. SE and 49th St. SE, to the north of the road. (from Cemeteries of Stutsman County, 1999)
5076	Gackle Country SDA		NW1/4 NW1/4 of 13-137-67
	Griffin twp. 10-1-1999 This cemetery is fenced and well kept. Haut Funeral Home holds some records for this cemetery. Current sexton is Dennis Schierer, Jamestown. This cemetery can be found two miles north of Gackle along 63rd Ave. SE, then a mile east on 52nd St. SE, then a mile north on 64th Ave. SE, a mile east along 51st St. SE, then a mile north on 65th Ave. SE. The cemetery is on the east side. (from Cemeteries of Stutsman County, 1999)
5077	Methodist of Evangelical Church		NE1/4 NE1/4 of 14-137-67
	Griffin twp. 10-1-1999 This abandoned cemetery is now the site of a large rockpile in the field perhaps 100 yards south of the road. At one time it held a church, which was later moved east across the road. There are supposed to be two markers here mingled with extraneous rocks, although we did not find them in 1999. This cemetery is just across the road west of the Gackle Country SDA Cemetery (#5076). (from Cemeteries of Stutsman County, 1999)
5078	Almond (or Ammon) Burial		NW1/4 of 7-137-66
	Alexander twp. 10-1-1999 The burial of these two sisters is marked by a large flat boulder just to the west of an old garage/shed on the hill south of the house in Dennis Schmierer's farmstead. There are no named markers. (from Cemeteries of Stutsman County, 1999)
5079	Reich Family Burial		SW1/4 of 20-137-66
	Alexander twp. 10-1-1999 There are said to be two graves here in a small fenced area, now in CRP grass and perhaps 3/8 of a mile east of the road west of this quarter. There are no markers. A son of Gottfried Reich and the boy's grandmother are here, in this abandoned site. This cemetery is located four miles east of Gackle along Hwy. 46, then about 2-1/2 miles north along 67th Ave. SE. A drive to the east along a hay trail take you to where you can see the fence on a hill. (from Cemeteries of Stutsman County, 1999)

5080	Summerfield Grave		NE1/4 of 30-137-67
	Alexander twp. 10-1-1999 There is no marker or evidence of a burial. A Summerfield baby is supposed to be buried south of the trees near the buildings. A GPS site was taken by a big tree about 60 feet west of an old shed on the hill. Information from Joe Kirvida in 1991. This site can be found miles east of Gackle along Hwy. 46, then about a 1-1/2 miles north on the west side and about 1-1/2 miles north along 67th Ave. SE. (from Cemeteries of Stutsman County, 1999)
5081	Montpelier Presbyterian or Old Community		NE1/4 NE1/4 of 14-137-63
	Montpelier twp. 10-1-1999 This abandoned cemetery is fenced but grown to tall weeds. A few stones are seen from the road but more are buried in the grass. There are supposed to be many burials here without markers. The location is at the south edge of Montpelier just where the RR tracks cross 89th Ave. SE. (from Cemeteries of Stutsman County, 1999)
5082	Olive Esther Haskell Burial		NW1/4 of 30-139-62
	Winfield twp. 10-1-1999 Olive was buried in a small flower bed near the house which was quite close to the river. The house and buildings are gone in 1999. There is no marker here, but a stone in the Valley Cemetery at Ypsilanti denotes details. This spot can be reached by gravel trail along 90th Ave. SE north of Ypsilanti, then about 3/4 mile north in the stubble field. (from Cemeteries of Stutsman County, 1999)
5083	Evangelical Church		SW1/4 SW1/4 of 8-138-68
	Bloomenfield twp. 10-1-1999 The 1911 county atlas shows a church in this location. No markers exist in 1999 in this active cow pasture, but there are grave depressions, one with a ring of rocks to denote burials. Luverne (Mrs. Marvin) Dockter reports a number of burials. She remembers the name LEIMKUHL associated with some of the burials. (from Cemeteries of Stutsman County, 1999)
5084	Lutheran Church		SW1/4 SW1/4 of 6-137-69
	Streeter twp. 10-1-1999 The cemetery was part of a churchyard and church built by Archie Schwecke's father, who was the minister. In 1999, Mrs. Archie Schwecke lives in the remodeled church. The cemetery is abandoned to tall weeds, contains only a few markers, with 16 burials total. Information from Archie Schwecke in 1996. This cemetery is 2 miles west of Streeter along 52nd St. SE, then 3 miles north along 50th Ave SE, then nearly 2 miles west along 49th St. SE, with the cemetery on the north side of the road. (from Cemeteries of Stutsman County, 1999)
5085	South Sykeston/New Home SDA		NE1/4 NW1/4 NE1/4 of 10-144-69
	Lowery twp. 10-1-1999 The cemetery is now farmed over, 3/8 mile west of Hwy. 30 (52nd Ave. SE) and 80 meters south of the road on the north side of section 10 (7th St. SE). This is the site of 4 burials being exposed in October 1995. This is also the site of land homesteaded by Maria Wall prior to 1904. It is also the site of the meeting place of the first congregation of the "South Sykeston SDA" which met in an abandoned sod house on this land. Since a number of persons died during the time the congregation met here, it is logical that most are buried close to where the bodies were exposed. "Grave witching" indicates a long row of burials just west and south of where the caskets were dug up. A fair assumption is that there are a number of burials still there, and unknown at this point. This cemetery is reached by traveling 9 miles north of Woodworth on Hwy. 30 (56th Ave. SE), then 4 miles west along the Jackson Hwy. (10th St. SE), then 3 miles north on Hwy. 30, and 3/8 mile east on 7th St. SE. The burial location is to the south of the road, although there is no marker or indicator of any kind. (from Cemeteries of Stutsman County, 1999)
5086	South Sykeston/New Home SDA #2		NE1/4 NW1/4 of 14-144-69
	Lowery twp. 10-1-1999 This farmed over cemetery is near the east end of the NW 1/4 and about 50 feet south of the section line trail to the north of the section. It is supposedly quite close to a schoolhouse that existed here. A larger abandoned sod house was the second place of worship for a group that eventually became the New Home SDA congregation. A number of burials were made here but when the first church was built in the current location on section 2, the burials were moved to the new churchyard. Viola (Mrs. Lawrence) Stoltz's mother told her they moved the bodies except three who they didn't know. Witching revealed three burials together with a fourth at an angle to the three. This cemetery be reached by traveling 9 miles north along Hwy. 30 (56th Ave. SE), then 4 miles west along the Jackson Hwy. (10th St. SE), then north 2 miles along Hwy. 30 (52nd Ave. SE), then about a half mile east on the section line trail. The cemetery is to the south of the trail. Since it is farmed over, there is nothing to identify the location except GPS. (from Cemeteries of Stutsman County, 1999)
5087	Unknown Cemetery		SE1/4 NE1/4 of 28-141-65
	Hidden twp. 10-1-1999 Two girls are buried (word of mouth) by the tree that is near but north of the bunch of trees that probably made up the farmstead and around 50 feet west of the N/S road. Information from Martin Krueger. This site is about 4 miles south of Buchanan on Hwy. 281, then west on 28th St. SE six miles, then a half mile south on the 75th Ave. SE trail, and on the west side. (from Cemeteries of Stutsman County, 1999)

5088	Gerber Burials		NE1/4 SW1/4 of 24-143-69
	Gerber twp. 10-1-1999 There is only one white stone, flat on the ground, although a number of flat stones are piled up on a tombstone base. All are low than the tall grass, which is now CRP. The stone is southwest of Wilhelm Peda's house in section 24, and about a quarter mile north of the Camp Grant stone marker on the south side of 24. This cemetery is located 4 miles north of Woodworth on 56th Ave. SE, then a mile west on 15th St. SE, then a mile south on 55th Ave. SE, then 1-1/2 miles west on 16th St. SE. From here you ask directions and hike. (from Cemeteries of Stutsman County, 1999)
5089	Schelske Burials		SE1/4 NE1/4 of 20-142-67
	Paris twp. 10-1-1999 There are no markers or other evidence now, of the burials which are located about 10 feet west of Walter Holzworth's mailbox, which is pretty much on the quarterline driveway that runs to his farm. This is just across the road to the west of the Reformed Church Cemetery (#5058) in Odenbach's front yard, and a couple hundred yards to the south. (from Cemeteries of Stutsman County, 1999)
5090	Gehring/Holzwarth Burial		SE1/4 NW1/4 of 22-142-67
	Paris twp. 10-1-1999 "Woodworth, Yesterday and Today", and "Dakota Pioneers, Gold-Wood-Mar" show two burials at this site. There are no markers. The burials are very near the quarterline on the south edge of the NW 1/4 22, and a few feet west of the east quarterline of the same section. This site is located 3 miles south of the intersection of Hwy. 36 and 62nd Ave. SE, then 1-1/2 miles east along 21st St. SE, then a half mile south. There is no road to this location and hiking around a large slough about in the middle of this quarter is required to reach the location. (from Cemeteries of Stutsman County, 1999)
5091	Eulgen Family		NE1/4 of 30-140-64
	Midway twp. 10-1-1999 This cemetery was established by Caroline Eulgen as noted in her 1888 probate file. The cemetery is described as being 147 feet by 148 feet, about a half acre, and "lying near the center of said land", said land being the NE 1/4 30. Lois Swanson remembers a cemetery from her childhood. She said her father, John Wahl, told her that it was an "old family cemetery". The 1953-54 Stutsman County Atlas shows a cemetery symbol in the NE 1/4 30. Larry Wahl, who farms this quarter recalls his grandfather saying there were maybe three burials, some of them children. It would appear that Caroline is probably one of the burials. There are no named markers. This cemetery can be reached by taking I-94 off ramp #265, traveling two miles west on the farm to market road, then 2 miles north along 79th Ave. SE, then 1/4 mile west on 34th St. SE. The cemetery can be seen about a quarter mile south of the road as a prominent rock pile covered with grass, measuring 30 feet across with its base three feet higher than the surrounding field. (from Cemeteries of Stutsman County, 1999)
5092	Old Windsor		NW1/4 SE1/4 of 32-140-66
	Windsor twp. 10-1-1999 Burials in this cemetery were supposed to have been moved to St. Pauline's Cemetery, although Marvin Wanzek, St. Pauline's sexton, shows only one burial from the "old" cemetery. It is likely that burials still exist here. The cemetery was located just south of the railroad tracks and in the very northwest corner of SE 1/4 32, and north of a schoolhouse. This is just east of present Windsor village. (from Cemeteries of Stutsman County, 1999)
5093	First St. James Catholic		exact location unknown
	10-1-1999 It existed from 1881 to 1887. An 1885 Alert news story showed it to be 4 miles west of Jamestown. A 1933 speech by E.P. Weidner and repeated in the 1958 Diamond Jubilee book, showed it to be about a half mile west of the Northern Pacific RR tower on the Pipestem Railroad and to the north side of the track. Studies of deeds have not found its location. All the burials here were supposed to have been reburied at Calvary Cemetery in the fall of 1887 and the spring of 1888, some 29 or so burials. This was supposed to have been ALL of the burials in this first cemetery. If this follows most cemetery removals, there may well be several burials still there. (from Cemeteries of Stutsman County, 1999)
5094	Dewey Family Burials		SW1/4 NW1/4 of 5-139-63
	Homer twp. 10-1-1999 These burials are located on the then Dewey farm, just north of the "Dewey" bridge, and on section 5. They are thought to be under an evergreen tree that is just west of LeRoy Roeske's house, and one burial in his driveway, a few feet north of the above tree. Some other burials are thought to be south of his house, between the house and the river. This site is along 85th Ave. SE, about a half mile south on 94, just north of the bridge and on the east side of the road. (from Cemeteries of Stutsman County, 1999)
5095	Warren Family Burial		SW1/4 SW1/4 of 4-139-63
	Homer twp. 10-1-1999 This burial is just north of the railroad tracks in the very SW corner of the section. It appears to be between the road and the railroad tracks in an area of old dead trees, flooded in 1999. The road that used to reach the Warren farm in the 1880s is now closed. Access to the location is locked on either end, on the west by Jamestown, and on the east by the Northern Prairie Wildlife Research Center. Help to find this location was given by the research center. (from Cemeteries of Stutsman County, 1999)

5096	Cornwell Family Burials  Homer twp. 10-1-1999 Location is not certain. Alfred Carlson maintained the burial was in a break in the tree belt on the quarter line between NE and NW quarters, at 46-50.50N, 098-37.16W. Trees still exist that must have been associated with the William Clark homestead at the south end of the NE 1/4. The graves were to have been "in the yard" northwest of the buildings, at perhaps 46-50.24N, 098-30.83W. (from Cemeterie of Stutsman County, 1999)		SW1/4 NW1/4 of 22-139-63
5097	Dougherty Baby Burial  Homer twp. 10-1-1999 The burial was made near a farmhouse that is no longer in existence. The whole quarter section is now in CRP tall grass. The location of this site is believed to be where graded road on the west side of the section ends. This burial location is 2-1/2 miles east along 31 St. SE from where the highway meets 38th St., then about a quarter mile south along 89th Ave. SE, which is just a trail, and on the east side the trail. The burial is farmed over and not marked. (from Cemeteries of Stutsman County, 1999)		NW1/4 of 14-139-63
5098	First Jamestown City  10-1-1999 Located on the east side of the river from about 1st St. SW to 3rd St. SW. The location gives no appearance of a cemetery now. Burials in the early days were made on both sides of the river, but concentrated more or less here. Notice was given in about 1892 to remov bodies. An organized effort was made at removal in 1893, but building and sewer construction kept turning up bodies for years. It is likely that some burials still exist in this area. The site can be reached by driving west on 3rd St. SW to where it meets the river. (from Cemeterie: Stutsman County, 1999)
5099	Schneider Child Burial  Sydney twp. 10-1-1999 In the 1930s, this burial had been marked with a small ring of rocks near the henhouse. The rocks were not found but the chicke house exists and is perhaps a hundred feet north of the house. The site location was taken just east of the chicken house. This cemetery is 1 miles south of I-94 along Hwy. 281, then a mile west along 46th St. SE, then a half mile north on 82nd Ave. SE. It is located in the Max Brandenburger farm on the west side of the road. (from Cemeteries of Stutsman County, 1999)		SE1/4 NE1/4 of 22-138-64
5100	Mary Shippey Burial  Montpelier twp. 10-1-1999 This burial is noted on page 13 of "The Story of Montpelier" in a 1955 article by Dana Wright. Mary Shippey, daughter of George Shippey, who homesteaded on Beaver Creek, is buried under a lilac bush. This site is located about a mile west of Montpelier to the top of the hill, then a little more than a mile south on the section line trail that is 88th Ave. SE. Cross the creek at the ford and see a large mound about 50 x 200 feet. The lilac tree over the grave is at the west end of the mound. There is no marker. (from Cemeteries of Stutsma County, 1999)		NE1/4 of 15-137-63
5101	Holy Cross Cemetery at Mutz School #1  Fried twp. 10-1-1999 The first Catholic congregation that later formed the Sacred Heart Church at Fried met first in this schoolhouse. Burials were sa to have been made here, and later moved to the present cemetery in Fried. Whether all were moved is unknown. The schoolhouse, which existed into the 1950s, was sold and moved. The site is now farmland, planted to beans in 1999. There are no markers here. This former cemetery is located in the extreme NE corner of section 21, lies about 1-1/2 miles south of Fried on the west side of 87th Ave. SE. (from Cemeteries of Stutsman County, 1999)		NE1/4 NE1/4 of 21-141-63
5102	Unknown Burial  Homer twp. 10-1-1999 This abandoned single burial was noted by landowner, Evelyn (Cub) Demary, to Loren Kittleson and is located somewhere near the large depression that must have been a house cellar that exists here. This burial is 3-1/2 miles east along 38th St. SE from where the highway meets 38th St., a mile south along 89th Ave. SE, then about a half mile east along 39th St. SE trail, and on the north side.
